

DELEGATE SCANLAN: No, it is marked A.

I will read it.

THE CHAIRMAN: If the Chair can identify it, we can have copies placed so the delegates can be informed about the matters about which you speak. Is it the one marked A or the one marked B.

Delegate Scanlan.

DELEGATE SCANLAN: I have the one marked A. Maybe Delegate James is about to slip me the one marked B.

(Laughter.)

Well, the substance of both of them is similar, I would move that if the motion for reconsideration is successful—

THE CHAIRMAN: Which one are you referring to?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: I am referring to C.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does any Delegate have a copy of the one marked C that the Chair can see?

Chief Page, do you have amendment marked C?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: This would have been sponsored by Delegates James, Raley, Sickles and Willoner.

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, I have a copy now.

We will distribute them to the delegates so that the delegates will know what you are speaking about. Delegate Scanlan, the copy that the Chairman has been handed has the words "General Assembly" in line four stricken and the word "State" stricken. Is that the copy you have?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: Yes, I have the same change.

THE CHAIRMAN: For what purpose does Delegate Koger rise?

DELEGATE KOGER: Inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: State the inquiry.

DELEGATE KOGER: Can opponents print some amendments, too? We may have a whole slew of them over on this side.

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not know. All I can say is what the Chair announced earlier. The only way to have the matter open again is to have the vote by which the recommendation was approved reconsidered. If it is reconsidered it is open to amendment. If it is not reconsidered it is not open to amendment.

Have the pages distributed copies of the amendment marked C?

Any delegates who do not have it please indicate to the pages. They will bring you a copy immediately.

Harry Taylor.

For what purpose does Delegate Harry Taylor rise?

DELEGATE H. TAYLOR: Parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: State the inquiry.

DELEGATE H. TAYLOR: I wonder if it is to have a limited reconsideration. When we vote on the motion to reconsider will we know that we are going to reconsider only the specific amendment because it may make a great difference if we are going to vote to open it up to a flood of amendments that Delegate Koger suggested may come in from opponents?

THE CHAIRMAN: I do not think that is possible. If the vote is reconsidered the vote is open for any amendment. I do not think the Chair can rule it will be open for only one amendment and not any other. It just is not feasible.

Delegate Scanlan has moved that the vote by which Committee Recommendation SF-2 was approved be reconsidered so that the Committee Recommendation would be before you and he has stated his intention if that is done to offer an amendment in the form which has been distributed to you except that as the Chair understands it, the printed form would be corrected by changing the words "General Assembly" in line 4 to the word "State". That amendment is not now before you. It is before you only for information purposes. What is now before you is the motion to reconsider. The motion has been seconded. For what purpose does Delegate Gleason rise?

DELEGATE GLEASON: Is this motion debatable?

THE CHAIRMAN: It is.

Delegate Gleason.

DELEGATE GLEASON: I would like to ask a question of the sponsor of the motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Scanlan, do you yield to a question?
